

Authorization to Release Education Record Information to a Third Party

In signing this form, you grant Roberts Wesleyan College permission for the third party named below to have access to information in your education records (i.e., grades, billing, schedule, and other non-directory information). This form will be valid until graduation from RWC or submission of a written request revoking access. If only one parent should be granted permission to information in your education records, give only the name of the one to whom permission is granted.

The completion of this form is mandatory in order for Roberts Wesleyan College to be in compliance with FERPA* laws. Any information contained in education records will not be released to any third party (i.e., parents, guardians, spouses) unless this form has been signed and submitted to the Registration Office.

I hereby authorize Roberts Wesleyan College to release information in my education records (i.e., grades, billing, schedule, and other academic non-directory information) to:

Student Name (please print) _____

Name(s) and/or Company to release information: _____

Relationship to Student _____
