Presents

Bishop Salvatore R. Matano,
D.D., S.T.L., J.C.D.

Thursday, October 18, 2018

4:00 p.m. Lake Auditorium in Smith Science

Bishop Matano earned his Licentiate of Sacred Theology and Doctorate in Canon Law from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, and was ordained to the priesthood in St. Peter's Basilica. He was raised to the rank of Honorary Prelate of His Holiness in 1985 and Protonotary Apostolic in 1993. From 1995 to 2000, Bishop Matano served as a Special Lecturer in the Undergraduate and Graduate Departments of Theology at Providence College, after which he served as secretary of the American nunciature. In 2005, Bishop Matano was appointed Coadjutor Bishop of Burlington, Vermont by Pope John Paul II. After receiving his episcopal consecration and becoming the ninth Bishop of Burlington, Bishop Matano, in 2014, succeeded Bishop Matthew H. Clark as bishop of the Diocese of Rochester, New York. He currently sits on the Board of Trustees of St. John's Seminary in Brighton, Massachusetts.
