Rachel Barnhart

Constitution Day – “Free Speech”

Monday, September 17, 2018

12:00 p.m. Ellen Stowe Room in Garlock*

A graduate of Cornell University and broadcast journalist for 18 years at Rochester-based stations 13 WHAM-TV and WROC-TV, Rachel has operated as an investigative journalist and the co-founder of Rochester Media Association in 2011 to support and strengthen the local press. She created and maintains an active blog, The Rochesterian, focusing on local news and issues. Rachel has run for political office three times, the latest of which was to succeed Louise Slaughter for the 25th congressional district, in which she received the second most votes in the Democratic primary election. Her book, Broad, Casted: Gender, Media, Politics, and Taking on the Establishment is born out of one of her election experiences.

*Those attending are encouraged to bring their lunch with them.

This event is sponsored by the RWC Cultural Enrichment Committee. Contact Dr. Matthew Moore for more information: 585.594.6786 or e-mail moorem@roberts.edu.
