

SOCIAL WORK

LEARN TO Live

BUILD STRONGER COMMUNITIES

ARE YOU READY TO LEAD WITH CONFIDENCE?

Whether you're working on public policy, community projects, or mental health counseling, your Social Work degree will be the start of a richly rewarding career. Learn to practice social work with integrity, embrace diversity, and apply evidence-based practice. Champion social justice and ignite political change. Engage in impactful community projects, social relations, and research.

WHY ROBERTS?

Graduate in as few as three years

Be considered for dual acceptance into our Master of Social Work program

Build your skills and confidence through research and internship opportunities

HANDS-ON LEARNING

Get real-world experience on our annual Legislative Trip to Washington D.C. Spend a semester researching a social policy you're passionate about, then present your case to Congress.

Train for real-world emergencies in our Trauma Simulation Lab. Team up with Criminal Justice and Nursing students to care for simulated patients and solve complex cases.

ROBERTS
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

roberts.edu
(585) 594-6600
admissions@roberts.edu

Apply Today

roberts.edu/apply

SOCIAL WORK

ROBERTS
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

SOCIAL WORK is the #1 degree sought after by mental health, healthcare, and other human service agencies. At Roberts, you'll become a competent generalist social worker, ready for the field or graduate school.

You'll learn to uphold the dignity of every person. Rooted in historic Christianity, Roberts welcomes all spiritual backgrounds and teaches a faith-integrated, evidence-based approach to social work. Get hands-on practice in the classroom, partner agencies (internships), and on Capitol Hill.

Want to continue your education upon completion of your bachelor's degree? Pursue the Master of Social work degree at Roberts to advance your career.

YOU'LL STUDY:

- Human behavior
- A variety of populations, such as individuals, families, and groups
- Spirituality and social work practice
- Social policy & community practice
- Social welfare history & research methods

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Alyssa and Ben Matz both graduated from this program in 2020. They stayed at Roberts for their Master of Social Work and graduated in 2022.

Alyssa is the Coordinator of Congregational Care and Family Ministry at Browncroft Community Church. Her husband, Ben, works as a school social worker at Neil Armstrong Elementary School. They met and fell in love at Roberts.

Alyssa says, "If you have a passion for serving others, advocating for all people, or a hunger for social justice – no matter what those things may look like, social work is for you. Both the Roberts Bachelor's of Social Work and Master of Social Work programs set students up for success on whatever path they decide to take."