Welcome to Twentieth Century Religious Thought

Twentieth Century Religious Thought is a multivolume, cross-searchable online collection that brings together the semiological materials related to key worldwide religious thinkers, from the early 1900s until the turn of the 21st century.

Volume I: Christianity includes the complete 17-volume German edition of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Werke (DBW) and '15 volumes of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works Series (DBWE) (final volumes will be added in 2014); an international selection of English-language authors such as Hans Urs von Balthasar, Rudolf Bultmann, James Cone, Gustavo Gutiérrez, Adolf von Harnack, Henri de Lubac, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Dorothee Sölle, and Ernst Troeltsch; and a selection of the papers of Reinhold Niebuhr.

Future releases will incorporate more archival collections or printed works of authors such as Donald Bloesch, Leonardo Boff, Bernard Lonergan, John Milbank, Karl Rahner, Albert Schweitzer, Jon Sobrino, and William Temple. Upon completion, the project will comprise 60 volumes of printed works and primary sources.

Twentieth Century Religious Thought supports research and teaching in comparative religion, theology, world religion, and politics, and serves as an important resource for courses and scholarship in social theory, feminist studies, philosophy, theologies, and other areas. Those who own The Digital Karl Barth Library, the collection is fully cross-searchable.
