

Cultural Conversations & Field Experiences

- Students enroll in this course for their first two semester of study at Roberts Wesleyan College, meaning varying levels will be enrolled.
- At the end of the course, students of varying levels will be able to:
 - Develop conversational skills, such as nonverbal communication, expressing opinions on various topics and issues, asking questions in classroom situations, and debating issues.
 - Gain familiarity with Rochester area.
 - Deepen cultural understandings of life in the United States