

Skills Enhancement Courses

ELI Seminar¹

- ELI Seminar 1
 - At the end of the course, students will be able to:
 - Articulate various aspects of cultural adjustment to life in the United States.
 - Demonstrate an understanding of typical classroom behaviors of American universities and colleges, including responding to correspondences from professors and the college, developing time management and organization skills, and seeking out support for various problems faced.
 - Reflect on their progress in their audit coursework.
- ELI Seminar 2
 - At the end of the course, students will be able to:
 - Explain and participate in various aspects of the Roberts Wesleyan campus community.
 - Demonstrate an understanding of typical classroom behaviors of American universities and colleges, including responding to correspondences from professors and the college, developing time management and organization skills, and seeking out support for various problems faced.
 - Reflect on their progress in their audit coursework.
- ELI Seminar 3
 - At the end of the course, students will be able to:
 - Articulate various supports received from their mentor.
 - Successfully communicate with professors and advisors.
 - Demonstrate an understanding of typical classroom behaviors of American universities and colleges, including responding to correspondences from professors and the college, developing time management and organization skills, and seeking out support for various problems faced.
 - Reflect on their progress in their audit coursework.

Academic Tutoring²

- At the end of the course, students will be able to:
 - Demonstrate responsibility in attending all sessions with their tutor.
 - Use various resources from their tutoring sessions to support their learning in course contents.

¹ ELI Seminar 1 (first Semester); ELI Seminar 2 (Interview- Second Semester); ELI Seminar 3 (Mentoring- All additional Semesters)

² Levels 1-4 students receive two hours of academic tutoring weekly

Conversational Partners

- At the end of the course, students will be able to:
 - Demonstrate acquired conversational skills, such as pronunciation, nonverbal communication, and expression opinions and disagreement on various topics and issues.
 - Explore deepened cultural understandings of life in the United States and integrate into Roberts' student community.