

PUBLIC HEALTH, M.S.

LEARN TO Live

HELP SHAPE HEALTHIER COMMUNITIES

Build the skills to improve health and strengthen communities while moving your career forward. Explore the biological, social, and environmental factors that shape health and learn how to turn what you know into real, meaningful solutions.

Apply what you learn through practical coursework and projects connected to real public health challenges and the work you're already doing. Help shape healthier communities

HIGHLIGHTS

- Capstone that applies core public health competencies to real-world issues
- No GRE/GMAT for admission and no course exams
- Flexible 7-week courses
- Apply what you learn right away
- Earn your Six Sigma Yellow Belt OR complete coursework needed to take the Project Management Certification (CAPM) exam
- Advanced Standing and tuition savings for eligible Roberts business health administration graduates

CAREER OUTLOOK

- The mindset to lead with purpose in public health
- Skills to analyze health needs and drive change
- The ability to build stronger systems and organizations
- Confidence in communication, ethics, and leadership
- Health Care occupations are anticipated to grow much faster than the average for all other occupations from 2025 - 2035*
- Healthcare support employment anticipated to grow the fastest by 12.4% from 2024 to 2034*

- 18-24 months
 - Part-time/full-time options
- 44 program credits
- $979 cost per credit (+fees)
- 100% Online format
 - Limited synchronous online
- Starts in July & March*
 - *Advanced standing students may start sooner

ACCREDITATION

Middle States
Commission on Higher Education

Based on the Bureau of Labor Statistics*

ROBERTS
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

roberts.edu
(585) 594-6600
admissions@roberts.edu

Apply Today

roberts.edu/apply