

LANGUAGE & LITERATURE

LEARN TO Live

READ BROADLY AND WRITE PASSIONATELY

BROADEN YOUR IMAGINATION

Study language. Explore literature. Find your voice.

Where can the power of language take you? Picture this: you're leading your own classroom. Writing your first book. Creating marketing content. Problem-solving in Human Resources. Wherever God leads you, you'll be ready.

At Roberts, you won't just sit passively in class. You'll learn how to think deeply, write clearly, and communicate with purpose. You'll be mentored by professors who've been there, published writers who care about your spiritual, professional, and academic growth.

AVAILABLE MAJORS

ROBERTS
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

ENGLISH

What can't you do with an English major? The skills you'll acquire can take you anywhere. Build your career in fields such as education, publishing, counseling, law, or marketing.

You'll study big voices (like Shakespeare, Austen, Dickinson, Hurston) and start to shape your own. Explore different cultures, think deeper, and become a better storyteller.

ADOLESCENCE & SPECIAL EDUCATION: ENGLISH

Be the teacher who brings stories to life. This Education major will show you how to follow your calling and share your love of literature.

GENDER STUDIES (MINOR)

Gender impacts everyone. Earn a minor in gender studies to explore how gender, race, sexualities, and other identities function in and contribute to society.

The interdisciplinary courses are grounded in the belief that women and men are created by God with equal standing in all areas of life, as championed by our founder, B.T. Roberts. You'll learn how to think critically, act justly, and bring thoughtful change wherever you go.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

"I could not ask for a better support system through my time at Roberts. I have had the privilege to meet many classes of wonderful students and teach both whole and small group lessons. I have been learning how to prevent and handle challenging student behaviors, how to pace lessons, and how to write engaging lesson plans that involve the use of technology.

After I graduate, I plan to enroll in one of Roberts' online master's degree programs while working as a substitute teacher. I'm excited to work as an English teacher!"
