SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY, M.S.

LEARN TO SUPPORT STUDENTS WHEN IT MATTERS MOST

Prepare to become a school psychologist who helps students learn, grow, and thrive. At Roberts, you'll learn to serve students and families with purpose, skill, and compassion.

Build the skills to assess, diagnose, and support children and adolescents in school settings while working alongside families, teachers, and administrators. This three-year program combines focused coursework with diverse hands-on experience.

Learn directly from experienced school psychologists, gain real-world experience, and prepare for national certification - so you're ready to make a meaningful difference in students' lives.

- 3 years
  - Part-time/full-time options 2 years of classes, 1 year- long paid internship
- 68 program credits
- $831 cost per credit (+fees)
- In-person format
- Start in August

HIGHLIGHTS

- Earn a Certificate of Advanced Study (C.A.S.) with your degree
- Paid third-year internship with field education director support
- Work and learn in a collaborative, supportive setting
- Be mentored by practitioner faculty

ACCREDITATION

- Regional: Middle States Commission on Higher Education
- Professional: National Association of School Psychologists

CAREER OUTLOOK

- 100% of graduates are employed in the field upon graduation
- 100% passing rate of the national school psychologist certification exam
- Build leadership skills to advocate for children and families
- Gain expertise in assessment, counseling, consultation, and prevention
- Understand how systems function within schools through hands-on practice

ROBERTS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

roberts.edu
(585) 594-6600
admissions@roberts.edu

Apply Today

roberts.edu/apply