

HISTORY

LEARN TO Live

LOOK TO THE PAST TO PURSUE YOUR FUTURE

HISTORY IS MORE THAN FACTS. IT'S ABOUT PEOPLE.

As a History major at Roberts, you won't just memorize important dates. Here, you'll study who we are as human beings. Why do we make the decisions that we do? What informs our values, faith, and culture? Those are the questions you'll wrestle with and answer here.

Want to teach? You can easily double major in Teacher Education and become a Social Studies teacher. Wherever you go - business, law, nonprofits, ministry, and more - you'll take sharp research, writing, and critical thinking skills with you. All grounded in Christian faith and servant leadership.

OUR GRADUATES WORK AS:

- Teachers & Professors
- Lawyers
- Pastors
- Journalists
- Archivists
- Librarians
- Museum Curators
- Business Owners/Managers
- And many more!

Follow Your Unique Calling

- Advance your interest in history in a wide range of careers.

Hands-on Learning

- Study abroad and/or take a trip to New York City for our Model U.N. course.

Shape Your Character

- Draw wisdom from the past to discover who you are and your place in the world.

ROBERTS
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

roberts.edu
(585) 594-6600
admissions@roberts.edu

Apply Today →

roberts.edu/apply

AVAILABLE MAJORS

HISTORY

Immerse yourself in the stories of European, American, and Global history, politics, and geography.

Launch your career right after graduation or keep going with graduate school in. We'll customize your educational pathway to match your unique calling.

ADOLESCENCE & SPECIAL EDUCATION: SOCIAL STUDIES

Become the Social Studies teacher who brings history to life. Combine your passion for teaching with your love of history and become a New York State certified teacher for grades 7-12. Gain practical experience through mentorship and student teaching.

HISTORY - PRE-LAW

History gives you the foundation that law schools look for. You'll study American and New York State government, get support preparing for the LSAT, and build experience through internships with local politicians and law offices.

Plus, you can travel to NYC to take part in the National Model U.N. Conference. Learn from real-world experience through internships with local politicians and law offices.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

"One of my favorite things about my History degree is the career flexibility it offers. Right now, while my aspiration is to become a constitutional lawyer, I know that if I wake up tomorrow and change my mind, my major will help me find a new career path. I have also served in the position of Graduate Fellow for Rochester's Mayor and Senator Kirsten Gillibrand. I'll be attending Canisius University for Higher Education and Student Affairs Administration, M.S."

— Kaycee Viator '22 (History, Spanish) is a recent graduate of the program.